FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §636(b), and an order of the District Court in implementation thereof, this cause has been referred to the United States Magistrate Judge. The findings, conclusions and recommendation of the Magistrate Judge are as follows:

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS:

Petitioner, a state prisoner, filed this pro se petition for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254, challenging a conviction from Tarrant County, Texas, and the denial of street time credits following a prior parole revocation. He has submitted a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. He is presently incarcerated at the Benton County Jail in Camden, Tennessee, awaiting a parole revocation hearing.

28 U.S.C. § 2241(d), which governs federal habeas corpus jurisdiction, provides in pertinent part as follows:

Where an application for a writ of habeas corpus is made by a person in custody under the judgment and sentence of a State court of a State which contains two or more Federal judicial districts, the application may be filed in the district court for the district wherein such person is in custody or in the district court for the district within which the State court was held which convicted and sentenced him and each of such district courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction to entertain the application. The district court for the district wherein such an application is filed in the exercise of its discretion and in furtherance of justice may transfer the application to the other district court for hearing and determination.

28 U.S.C. § 2241(d); accord Story v. Collins, 920 F.2d 1247, 1250-51 (5th Cir. 1991). See also Wadsworth v. Johnson, 235 F.3d 959, 961 (5th Cir. 2000).

Petitioner was convicted and sentenced in Tarrant County, which is located in the Fort Worth Division of the Northern District of Texas. 28 U.S.C. § 124(a)(2). He is currently incarcerated in Tennessee.

For the convenience of the parties and witnesses and in the interest of justice, a district court may transfer a civil action to any district or division where it might have been brought. See 28 U.S.C. § 1404. Courts in Texas have traditionally held that the most appropriate venue for challenges to the legality of a conviction is in the district court for the district within which the petitioner was convicted and sentenced.

Because the conviction at issue in this case arose in the Fort Worth Division of the Northern District of Texas, the Court finds that this case should be transferred to that division for further proceedings.

RECOMMENDATION:

For the foregoing reasons, it is recommended that the District Court TRANSFER this habeas corpus action to the Fort Worth Division of the Northern District of Texas for further proceedings.

A copy of this recommendation will be MAILED to Petitioner.

Signed this 26th day of September, 2007.
